

Yinson Production reinforces growth strategy with appointment of Bruno Chabas to its board

Chabas, who served as CEO of SBM Offshore for over a decade, brings extensive global FPSO and renewable energy leadership experience

Singapore, 9 October 2025 – Yinson Production announces the appointment of Bruno Chabas to its Board of Directors, effective 1 October 2025.

Mr Chabas brings more than three decades of global leadership experience in the offshore energy sector. From 2012 to 2024, he served as Chief Executive Officer of SBM Offshore N.V., a publicly traded global leader in offshore energy solutions. During his 12-year tenure, he oversaw the company's strategic transformation, steering growth through new floating production technologies and entry into renewable energy markets.

As Yinson Production continues to strengthen its position as a leading player in the lease and operate space for floating production, storage and offloading solutions, Mr Chabas' appointment underscores the company's commitment to building a world-class leadership team to support its long-term growth strategy.

Mr Chabas previously held executive and leadership roles at Acergy (formerly Stolt Offshore and presently Subsea 7), where he progressed through senior financial and operational positions across the USA, France, and the UK before becoming Chief Operating Officer. Mr Chabas began his career in finance and holds an MBA with High Distinction from Babson College. He is a dual citizen of Switzerland and France.

Commenting on his appointment, Mr Chabas said: "I am honoured to join the Yinson Production Board of Directors at such a pivotal time for the company and the wider offshore energy industry. Yinson Production has established itself as one of the fastest-growing players in the market, with a strong reputation for reliability, innovation, and sustainable performance. I look forward to contributing my experience and insights to support the company's next phase of growth."

Mr Lim Chern Yuan, Chairperson of the Board of Yinson Production and Group CEO of Yinson Holdings Berhad, said: "We are delighted to welcome Bruno Chabas to the Yinson Production Board. His extensive leadership experience and deep industry knowledge will be invaluable as we execute on our strategic goals."

Mr Chabas' appointment reinforces Yinson Production's ongoing efforts to expand its capabilities, deliver industry-leading uptime and safety, and continue advancing innovative solutions that balance global energy needs with environmental sustainability.

Mr Bruno Chabas, Senior Independent Director
